The Annual Creative Writing Festival

Each spring, the festival brings together professional writers as well as faculty and students of creative writing from colleges and universities across our area for a celebration of creative writing. Festival activities include:

- Readings by Critically Acclaimed Authors
- Lecture/Panel Sessions
- Creative Writing Workshops and a Creative Writing Contest

This event is sponsored in part by the Suffolk County Community College Office of Campus Activities and Student Leadership Development.

