worth knowing...

- Suffolk is continually producing Phi Theta Kappa All-USA Academic Team members. What's more, our students receive SUNY Chancellor Awards, Jack Kent Cooke Scholarships and other notable academic accolades each year.

- Suffolk has joint admission agreements with a wide range of SUNY and private four-year colleges and universities.

- Suffolk is home to the largest nursing program in New York State.

- Our tuition is among the lowest in the region, yet our education is second to none. Suffolk's esteemed faculty brings personal attention and credentials from among the country's most acclaimed colleges and universities.

- Suffolk offers a variety of study abroad programs so you can enhance and expand your college experience.

- Suffolk offers the only accredited culinary arts program on Long Island.

- Suffolk was the first college in the country to have a digital planetarium offering state-of-the-art representations of the night sky.

- Suffolk's Radio and TV Production Program has placed approximately 1,000 graduates throughout the nation in jobs that involve all aspects of the broadcasting industry.