

"Suffolk County Community College offers a welcoming environment for international students like me, whose first language is not English, and who come from an educational system much different from that of the United States. The smaller classes, the attentive and personable professors, and the individualized services offered on campus helped me thrive. I treasure the memories I have from my time at Suffolk County Community College."

- Deborah Araujo, Class of 2008

"The warm and friendly environment of Suffolk County Community College is a great place to begin your college career. As an international student from Morocco, I can say that I expanded my horizons at Suffolk and look forward to continuing my education at a four-year institution in the United States."

- Safaa Lafnoune, Class of 2012

"Studying at Suffolk County Community College as an international student from Brazil has been an exciting learning experience and I believe the knowledge and confidence I have gained will be extremely helpful in my upcoming career as an Interior Designer."

- Leonardo Figueredo, Class of 2012
