What are the Qualifications for Admission?

To be considered for the Honors Program, incoming students must submit an Honors Program application, which is in addition to the application for admission to the College. Entering students need to meet certain criteria and requirements, including an essay, a letter of recommendation, a B+ average and a composite SAT score of 1650 or an ACT score of 24. Students who are already enrolled in the program must maintain a 3.3 cumulative grade point average.

What Do the Best Colleges and Universities Have in Common? Suffolk Students.

For years, Suffolk's Honors Program has been preparing students to pursue their academic and career ambitions. Alumni of the program have an excellent record of transfer success to respected four-year programs. Here is what some of our graduates say:

Peter Dudek, Suffolk Class of 2011 "There is no doubt in my mind that the Honors Program at Suffolk caused me to stop dreaming about the stars and start reaching for them."
Yale University, Class of 2013

Karen Sanchez, Suffolk Class of 2013 "To be the first person in my family to graduate from college and move on to an Ivy League school is unreal. From Suffolk's Honors program, you can go anywhere."
Columbia University, Class of 2015

Ryan Maloney, Suffolk Class of 2011 "Through Suffolk's Honors Program, I enhanced my analytical skills, honed my writing abilities, and developed a keen interest in American politics and history. I transferred to the University of Virginia and earned my bachelor's degree debt-free."
University of Virginia, Class of 2013
