BREAKING GROUND - Suffolk County Community College (SCCC) officials gathered recently in a groundbreaking ceremony for the new Health and Wellness Center on the school's Eastern Campus in Riverhead. The 48,000 square-foot building will include a gymnasium, indoor pool, rock-climbing wall and nursing classroom. The cost of the $18 million facility will be split between the state and the county, which designated the necessary funds in its 2013-2015 Capital Project Plan, approved in 2012.
