

Suffolk County Community College Equal Opportunity and Anti-Discrimination Policy

A. PURPOSE

Suffolk County Community College (“College”) is an equal-opportunity employer and educational institution dedicated to fostering and maintaining a safe, accessible, diverse and inclusive environment that is free of all forms of discrimination and harassment. The College is committed to increasing the availability of opportunities and access for students, staff, and faculty. It is the responsibility of all members of the College community to comply with and take appropriate action to assist in the implementation of this policy in order to promote the realization of non-discrimination and equal opportunity. This policy ensures that only relevant factors are considered and that equitable and consistent standards of conduct and performance are applied.

To the extent this policy conflicts with other College policies or procedures, this policy supersedes the conflicting portions of those policies/procedures.

B. DEFINITIONS

Discrimination is behaviors or actions that deny or limit a person’s ability to benefit from and/or fully participate in the College’s educational programs or activities or employment opportunities because of a person’s actual or perceived protected characteristics. Harassment on the basis of one or more of the protected characteristics listed below is a form of discrimination prohibited by this policy. Bias incidents, which are also prohibited by this policy, are defined as acts of bigotry, harassment, or intimidation directed at a member or a group because of their actual or perceived protected characteristics.

C. DISCRIMINATION PROHIBITED

1. Suffolk County Community College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, creed, sex, age, marital status, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, familial status, pregnancy, predisposing genetic characteristics, equal pay compensation-sex, national origin, military or veteran status, domestic violence victim status, criminal conviction, disability or any other legally prohibited basis upon which discrimination is unlawful in its admissions, programs and activities, or employment. This applies to all employees, students, applicants or other members of the College community (including, but not limited to, trustees, vendors, visitors, and contractors). No person, on the basis of protected status, shall be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to unlawful discrimination or harassment under the College’s admissions, programs, and activities, and employment. The College will take steps to prevent and remedy discrimination and harassment, and to prevent the recurrence of discrimination and harassment.

The following persons have been designated to handle inquiries regarding the College’s non-discrimination policies:

Civil Rights Compliance Officers
Christina Vargas Chief Diversity Officer/Title IX Coordinator Ammerman Campus, NFL Bldg., Ste. 230 533 College Road, Selden, New York 11784 vargasc@sunysuffolk.edu (631) 451-4950	Dionne Walker-Belgrave Affirmative Action Officer/Deputy Title IX Coordinator Ammerman Campus, NFL Bldg., Suite 230 533 College Road, Selden, New York 11784 walkerd@sunysuffolk.edu (631) 451-4051

2. The College has zero tolerance for behavior that introduces discrimination or harassment into the teaching, learning or working environment; or any other relationship arising from College activities or programs.

3. Retaliation against a person who files a complaint, serves as a witness, or assists or participates in any manner in under this policy, is strictly prohibited and may result in disciplinary action. Retaliation is an adverse action taken against an individual as a result of complaining about unlawful discrimination or harassment, exercising a legal right, and/or participating in a complaint investigation as a third-party witness. Participants who experience retaliation should contact the Civil Rights Compliance Officers listed above, and may file a complaint pursuant to this policy.
4. This policy shall apply to:
 - all employees, students, applicants or other members of the College community (including, but not limited to, trustees, vendors, visitors and contractors);
 - any location of College-sanctioned activities on or off campus;
 - all education programs and activities;
 - any College-administered programs;
 - all terms, conditions, and privileges of employment, including but not limited to hiring and firing, compensation, assignment or classification of employees, transfer, promotion, layoff or recall, job advertisements, recruitment, testing, facilities, training and apprenticeship programs, fringe benefits, pay, retirement plans, disability leaves; and
 - educational access for students, faculty, and staff.
5. This policy supports and adheres to applicable federal, state, and local laws prohibiting discrimination and harassment (see References at the end of this policy).

D. PROCEDURES FOR REPORTING DISCRIMINATION

The Suffolk County Community College Discrimination, Sexual Harassment and Sexual Violence Complaint and Grievance Procedure can be used to file a discrimination or sexual harassment complaint internally (see Related Policies, Documents and Contacts at the end of this policy).

- Discrimination and harassment complaints against employees or third parties¹:

Should be reported to the Chief Diversity Officer/Title IX Coordinator or Affirmative Action Officer (see Appendix A for current contact information).
- Discrimination and harassment complaints against students:

Should be reported to the Campus Associate Dean of Student Services of the campus at which the alleged discrimination occurred (see Appendix A for current contact information).

External resources for making a complaint of discrimination or sexual harassment are listed in Appendix B to this policy.

E. DISSEMINATION

This policy will be disseminated to the greatest extent possible to all internal and external constituents, inclusive of, but not limited to, the following: inclusion in faculty and student handbooks, College catalogs, as well as other employee and student venues and materials. Externally, all advertising will include a notice that Suffolk County Community College is an equal opportunity employer and educator and all recruitment sources will be advised that the College encourages referrals of members of protected groups.

F. CONFIDENTIALITY

The College recognizes that confidentiality is important to victims of discrimination and harassment. A victim who has made a report may make a request for confidentiality or privacy at any point. Suffolk County Community College will make all reasonable efforts to honor such a request limiting information to those who need to know for an investigation to commence. The College understands that it may be difficult for a victim to come forward, and there are several options available for students who wish to maintain confidentiality while getting the support they need. However, requests for confidentiality may limit Suffolk County Community College's ability to investigate and respond to the allegations. The College cannot guarantee complete confidentiality because of its responsibility to safeguard all members of the community and its obligations under the law, including Title VI, VII and IX. Certain employees on campus have different abilities to maintain confidentiality: Some employees are required to maintain near complete confidentiality; talking to them is sometimes called a "privileged communication." For students, this includes the offices of Mental Health Services, and Health Services on each campus.

G. DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Violations of this policy shall be considered misconduct, and violators may be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with College policy, the applicable collective bargaining agreements, and the Student Code of Conduct. Such discipline may include termination, suspension or expulsion.
