

“We must prepare our students and our College to be ready to adapt to an ever-changing world. To meet this charge requires vision, fortitude and the ability to forge consensus.”

Dr. Shaun L. McKay on the occasion of his inauguration as the sixth President of Suffolk County Community College