The Smartest Service Members

You Served. We Honor.

At Suffolk County Community College, we proudly serve more than 700 military-connected students each year. The transition from military service to civilian life can be a critical period in the life of a student veteran. We know that balancing college with your many military, career, family and personal responsibilities can be extremely challenging. At Suffolk, we recognize that all service members have different needs and educational goals. The combination of resources, institutional support, student community and personalized attention that you will receive while enrolled at Suffolk makes it an excellent place to begin your academic career or continue your studies.

Here you will find affordable, quality higher education delivered in small class settings, led by faculty with credentials from many of the country’s most acclaimed colleges and universities. Classes are conveniently available during the day and evening and on weekends — both on campus and online — to fit your busy schedule.

The Best and Brightest Students

Our students are among the best and brightest in the region. Many of them choose to earn an associate degree here and then transfer with full credit to a highly rated four-year college or university to pursue a bachelor’s degree. By spending the first two years of their higher education experience at Suffolk, they receive a quality education while saving tens of thousands of dollars.

The College is also committed to economic empowerment, entrepreneurial development and skills enhancement. As a premier learning-centered institution, we offer more than 100 degree and certificate programs, including nursing, EMT and criminal justice. In addition, we offer a wide range of programs that lead to employment opportunities in a variety of highly skilled workforce training fields — such as welding and CNC machine operations.
