

Digital Humanities and the Transformation of Scholarship

A SUNY CONVERSATIONS IN THE DISCIPLINES CONFERENCE

Friday, April 5

Sagtikos Arts and Sciences Center - 9:00 am - 5:00 pm
Michael J. Grant Campus - Suffolk County Community College

How is digital scholarship redefining disciplinary boundaries and challenging conventional ideas about scholarly expertise?

Are the ethics and politics of traditional scholarship and publication hindering the creative potential of new technologies?

What possibilities in the digital humanities remain to be explored?

The conference will provide opportunities for critical reflection, and for sharing innovations and developments in the field of digital humanities.

Featuring Rolling Stone Magazine senior critic Will Hermes, digital poster sessions, nationally recognized speakers, and a student/faculty digital art show.

Join the Conversation.

Details and registration at: www.sunysuffolk.edu/CID

cid@sunysuffolk.edu

