

Shannon takes second place in SCCC culinary competition

Suffolk County Community College Culinary School student Victoria Shannon of Huntington whipped up a delectable dish to claim second place in the school's Battle for the Beach Competition.

The students' challenge was to take a mystery basket of ingredients and turn them into a dish that was judged on creativity, presentation and taste with minimal time to plan and execute its delivery — similar to the Food Network reality television show "Chopped."

The competition was held Dec. 6 at The Culinary Arts and Hospitality Center at Suffolk County Community College's Riverhead campus.
