Suffolk County Community College women's basketball head coach and the school's athletic director, Kevin Foley, earned his 400th career win with the Sharks, with an 86-30 win over Hostos Community College on Feb. 5.

Foley, of Blue Point, is completing his 23rd year at the helm of Suffolk's women's team, which has advanced to the playoffs for the last 20 consecutive years.

The coach's impressive record includes playing in 14 semifinals, winning six regional championships and a national title. He has an overall record of 433-125 and is the winningest coach in Suffolk County Community College history. Foley also has the longest tenure at one college of any coach in the New York metropolitan area.

Foley announced that he will step down as head coach of the women's basketball team after this season but continue as athletic director.

Foley was inducted into the Suffolk County Sports Hall of Fame in 1994 in honor of his outstanding basketball career and was recently honored by the college's board of trustees on Feb. 19 for his milestone as head coach.

Local coach receives Agency Hands award

Allstate Insurance agent Jeff Freund, whose office is located in East Setauket, has received the Agency Hands in the Community Award for his commitment to volunteering in the community.

With this award came a $1,000 grant from The Allstate Foundation for the Middle Country Children's Soccer Club, where Freund volunteers as a travel coach.

"Jeff is an active and respected member of the business community, protecting customers with insurance and financial services products," said Don Rubbo, New York regional sales leader at Allstate Insurance Company. "He also makes it a priority to dedicate his time and efforts to make a difference in people's lives. Jeff exemplifies the full spectrum of what it means to be an Allstate agent and has truly become a name and face in his community."

Middle Country Children's Soccer serves Selden, Centereach and Lake Grove as a place for local youths to develop their soccer abilities, as well as good character, team spirit and sportsmanship.
