

REACHING BACK - MOVING FORWARD
SUNY SUFFOLK CELEBRATES BLACK HISTORY

BLACK HISTORY MONTH 2022

Tuesday, February 8

GET MOVING: TOOLS TO COMBAT SEDENTARY LIFESTYLE (12:30PM).

Featuring fitness instruction by professional trainer and performer Elijah Coleman and presentation by Director of Suffolk County Office of Minority Health Mrs. Adesuwa Watson.

In-person: Mildred Green Room, Babylon Student Center, Ammerman
Virtual: Meeting ID: 846 6583 5301
Passcode: MOVE

Wednesday, February 9

WELCOME BACK SAAS SOCIAL-SISTER 2 SISTER (11:00AM). SAAS

members are welcomed back and participate in goal setting activities. Non SAAS members are invited to learn more about this student retention initiative as well as participate in activities of intention.

In-person: Islip Arts Room 108, Ammerman

February 9 - 25

KUJICHAGULIA: Self Determination Display Honoring and Celebrating Black History Month

In-person: Interactive display in The Nook, Babylon Student Center Ammerman

February 14 and 16

MULTICULTURAL AFFAIRS DIVERSITY LISTENING CIRCLE! (12:30PM).

Join us and discuss the changes in America and showcase the film, "Race Amity". To symbolize the unity of black, brown, and white people. Oreo cookies, vanilla ice cream, and flan will be served.

In-person: MLRC 107 and 108, Eastern

Tuesday, February 15

The Lively Arts Series presents...

JD LAWRENCE'S TULSA 1921 (10:00AM).

The community known as the Greenwood District was referred to as "Black Wall Street." In June 1921, a series of events nearly destroyed the entire Greenwood area. This is that story.

— Shuttle available at 9:15am from Ammerman campus. Seats are limited. All students interested in transportation, email: Malika Batchie Lockhart at batchim@sunysuffolk.edu. Veterans and Suffolk students with current ID: are entitled to one FREE ticket. For tickets and zoom information call 631-851-6589.

In-person: Sagtikos, Van Nostrand Theatre, Michael J. Grant

Wednesday, February 16

THE POWER OF LOVE (12:30PM)

Join us for a workshop on Love, learn about love as it relates to human bonding, Black History, Pride History. Our conversation will be inclusive of non-binary, interracial, and cultural celebrations about love and intimacy. Presented by Frenchie Davis, MPH is an authority on Human Sexuality and Public Leadership and Health.

Virtual: Meeting ID: 816 1319 3225
Passcode: LOVE

Thursday, February 17

SILENCE THE SHAME, EMPOWER YOURSELF! (2:00-3:15PM) Exploring the Stigma of Mental Health in the Black Community. Featuring performances by National Slam Poet Competitor Lyrical Faith and presentation by Suffolk County Office of Minority Health representative.

In-person: Mildred Green Room, Babylon Student Center, Ammerman

Virtual: Meeting ID: 816 1557 8158
Passcode: WELLNESS

February 21-25

BLACK HISTORY MOVIES AND LUNCH FILM FESTIVAL! (12:00-1:00PM). Join us in viewing the film series "The History of African American Achievements in America". Finger foods, Hors d'oeuvres, and dessert will be served.

In-person: MLRC 107 and 108, Eastern

Wednesday, February 23

WHO AM I SERIES PRESENTS...

SPILL THE TEA: UNPACKING CODE SWITCHING (11:00AM)

Students are invited to register to receive a "Sip and Chat Tea Packet" and have a candid discussion with faculty and administrators about Code Switching.

In-person: Mildred Green Room, Babylon Student Center, Ammerman

Virtual: Meeting ID: 835 0612 7990
Passcode: TEA

Thursday, February 24

BLACK HISTORY BINGO (8:00PM) Live on Zoom with Cedric Baggett. Participants will have an opportunity to win Amazon e-gift cards while we celebrate and learn all about Black History including influential People, Events, and Movements.

Virtual: Meeting ID: 856 2927 4263
Passcode: BINGO

SPONSORED BY
THE OFFICE OF CAMPUS ACTIVITIES AND MULTICULTURAL AFFAIRS