

YOUnity Starts with YOU

2025-2026 School Year

Unity Day

November 7, 2025

10:00 am-1:00 pm

Suffolk County Community College
Ammerman Campus, Selden

Students will hear from an inspirational guest speaker that focuses on celebrating their unique identities and ways that we can learn from the past to become leaders in positive change.

"Letters from Anne and Martin"

January 30, 2026 | 9:30 am-1:00 pm

SYJCC 74 Hauppauge Rd, Commack

Letters from Anne and Martin is a theatrical production that entwines the iconic words of Anne Frank and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. This unique adaptation examines their experiences living in the shadow of hatred and prejudice and their determination to hold onto their hopes for a fair and just world in different decades, on different sides of the globe but within the same generation.

Teen Summit on the Holocaust

March 27, 2026 | 9:30 am-1:00 pm | SYJCC 74 Hauppauge Rd, Commack

The Teen Summit on the Holocaust will bring together high schools students to hear from speakers and participate in various interactive workshops geared to gain a greater understanding of the atrocities of the Holocaust and how we all work towards a culture of kindness and respect.

YOUnity Conferences

 are a series of FREE educational & engaging programs for high school students.

Our interactive conferences focus on issues of bias and prejudice, and help students create action steps to promote communities of understanding and respect.

This program is brought to you by the Suffolk Y JCC and Suffolk County Community College's Center for Social Justice and Human Understanding. Conferences are open to Suffolk County schools at no cost.

Registration is required. Space is limited. Open to students in grades 9-12.

Schools are invited to bring up to 40 students at no cost.

For questions & registration, contact: Jane Pashman at jpashman@syjcc.org
