Upon successful completion of the Accounting /A.A.S. Degree program, graduates will be able to:

1. Explain the Accounting Equation;
2. Identify, describe and read the major financial statements;
3. Prepare and enter business transaction data for use in standard financial statements including general ledger, payroll, sales, and income tax forms;
4. Identify and describe the major roles and responsibilities of the accountant in various sectors of business, industry or government agencies;
5. Convey accounting concepts and data in written and oral form to assist in business management and decision-making; and,
6. Identify and explain major concepts and principles that impact the field of accounting.