Your Passport...

Suffolk County Community College's Hotel and Resort Management degree (A.A.S.) and one-year certificate programs are designed for individuals with a career interest in the lodging and resort industry.

If you would enjoy working in a fast-paced atmosphere where every day is different, where you will meet people from all over the world, and where your unique, friendly and outgoing personality are job requirements, then the Hotel/Resort Management Program could be just for you!

The Hotel and Resort Management industry represents a wide range of businesses, from the small country inn or bed and breakfast, to multi-national chains of hotels and resorts. Management opportunities exist in front-office operations, food and beverage management, banquet-meeting sales, human resources, facilities management and more.

To find out how SCCC can help you succeed in this exciting field, simply call (631) 548-2500 or visit sunysuffolk.edu/CulinaryArts.

to a World of Excitement!

Suffolk County Community College

Culinary Arts and Hospitality Center
20 East Main Street
Riverhead, NY 11901

Non-Profit
Organization
U.S. Postage
PAID
Suffolk County
Community College

HOTEL AND RESORT MANAGEMENT AT SCCC

Now Taking Reservations for Rewarding Careers!

A Growing Industry

The hospitality industry's growth rate is increasing and the importance of finding good employees with qualified skills has become a high priority. With the right educational credentials, you can see the world in an industry that offers its employees significant travel discounts and special travel industry perks. Even better, the industry is now hiring!

A World of Opportunity

• Over 800 million people are traveling this year. The travel and tourism industry is the world's number one employer and represents more than 10% of global spending. This means the hotel industry is always looking to hire qualified applicants, like graduates of the SCCC program.

• There are approximately 52,000 hotels and more than 1.7 billion hotel rooms in the U.S. alone. Work domestically or let your wanderlust dictate where you will live and work. You can run a bed and breakfast, work at a resort on Long Island, or a boutique hotel in New York City. Or, explore an international career with stops in countries where the hospitality industry is growing rapidly, such as Dubai, China, Brazil, and India.

• Stay local or travel the world, but start by taking advantage of the world's most exciting and dynamic industry — the hospitality industry. The first step to your world-class career is to get your passport stamped at Suffolk County Community College's Hotel/Resort Management Program.

• In addition to an internship, SCCC students receive exposure to a comprehensive mix of courses including hospitality, culinary arts, marketing and business classes to gain a broad understanding of how a hotel operates.

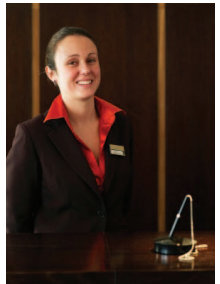

A Full Range of Careers

The hospitality and tourism industry offers abundant opportunity for students seeking careers, including:

- Front-office Operations
- Food and Beverage Management
- Hotel Sales, Catering/Meeting Sales and Event Management
- Human Resource Management
- Facilities Management

Opportunities for these career exist in a wide variety of sectors and industries, including:

- Hotels and Resorts
- Restaurants and Commercial Food Service
- Meeting and Event Planning
- Tourism Destinations/Attractions
- Leisure and Recreation Facilities
- Airlines and Cruises
- Spa and Wellness Management

Praise from our Partners

"Our experience with students from SCCC's Hotel and Resort Management Program has been a success. When you combine passionate students with a drive to succeed in the hospitality industry with the real world experience given at SCCC, you produce something that will catch the eye of any employer."

– Steve Shauger, General Manager
Hyatt Place Hotel East End

"As a General Manager in the hospitality industry, SCCC students are my first choice when hiring. I would highly recommend the SCCC Hotel and Resort Management Program to anyone interested in the hospitality Industry"

– Tina Fero, General Manager, Holiday Inn Express, Best Western East End Hotels

Praise from our Students

"I am so prepared by this program – everything I learned has been related to real-world situations."

– Jaqueline Albanese, Class of 2012
Assistant Front Office Manager,
Hotel Indigo East End

"This program has done a great job preparing me for an exciting career in a booming industry!"

– Amanda Warnes, Class of 2012

"I feel like I have been given the opportunity to make something of myself. As a part of the fast-growing hotel industry, I know I will have a sense of security for many years to come."

– Kevin Mulvihill, Class of 2013

Recent Employers Include...

Hyatt Regency
Hyatt Place
Residence Inn by Marriott
Courtyard by Marriott
Marriott Hotels
Fairfield Inn by Marriott
Spring Hill Suites by Marriott
The Maidstone
Soundview Inn
Holiday Inn Express
Hotel Indigo
Southampton Inn
North Fork Table & Inn
The Allegria Hotel