24 Caps Off to Our Nursing Program

Not only is SCCC the largest community college in the SUNY system; it is also home to the largest nurse education program in the State. To date, we have graduated 3,000 Registered Nurses who are helping to meet the expanding demand for health care professionals on Long Island. The College has partnership agreements with seven local hospitals and one nursing home that help fund faculty position and increase the program's capacity.

(PHOTOS?)