The New York State Office of Victim Services may be able to assist in compensating victims/survivors for health care and counseling services, including emergency funds. More information may be found here: ovs.ny.gov or by calling 1-800-247-8035. Options are explained here: https://ovs.ny.gov/help-crime-victims.

When a “No Contact Order” has been issued by the College, if the accused and a protected person observe each other in a public place, it is the responsibility of the accused to leave the area immediately and without directly contacting the protected person. Both the accused/respondent and reporting individual may request a prompt review of the need for and terms of a "No Contact Order", consistent with College policy. Both parties may submit evidence in support of their request.

• To receive an explanation of the consequences for violating these orders, including but not limited to arrest, additional conduct charges, and interim suspension.

• To have assistance from Public Safety in contacting law enforcement to effect an arrest when an individual violates an Order of Protection or, if outside of New York State, an equivalent protective or restraining order within the jurisdiction or, if outside of the jurisdiction or to call on and assist local law enforcement in effecting an arrest for violating such an order.

• When the accused is a student and presents a continuing threat to the health and safety of the community, to have the accused subject to interim suspension pending the outcome of a conduct process. Both parties may request a prompt review of the need for and terms of an interim suspension.

• When the accused is not a student but is a member of the college community and presents a continuing threat to the health and safety of the community, to subject the accused to interim measures in accordance with the applicable collective bargaining agreements, employee handbooks and college policies and rules.
